ie spring meeting at Aqueduct closed yesterday with some excellent cacing, which was witnessed by a holiday crowd of 20,000 persons, although the weather was cold and and made those who went to the track oil stoves. There was more of a semg days of the meeting, which has been a arvest for the books, as three favorites and second choice, all heavily played, got home

Two stakes were on the card, and both provided problems in the speculation line kept the sheet writers busy. The Queens County Handicap, for three-

Boden's Rosetint, Burns an even money favorite, made all the uning, winning easily by two and a half agths in 1:39 1-5, equalling the best record r the track, made by Oarsman last October. the general close up in the stretch Florham een and Jack Ratlin, who had shown early in their pursuit of Rosetint, stopped, Colonsay, 8 to 1, and Ostrich, also 8 came from the ruck, the former taking place by a head in a hot drive, with Ostrich a length and a half before Florham

Newton Bennington's Waterside. Watercress-Troyen, 4 to 1, and E. R. mas's recently purchased Niblick, by St. ien-Braw Lass, 7 to 2, second choice, king part. Matador was in possession of advantage up to the last furlong pole, here Redfern, who held the rail position with blick, went to the front and won in a drive a length and a half in 0:55. Waterside nished strongly and beat Matador for the lace by the same margin. Gold Ten, the avorite, was again shut in just after the break

V. Bell's three-year-old Collector Jesup, a 10 to 1 shot, secured the handicap at ive furlongs straightaway. He led siways, and had a length and a half over Newton Bennington's Astarita, 8 to 5 favorite, at the end. The latter was never worse than secength. In another jump Bardolph, 15 to 1, would have been third. He was a nose beind Sweet Alice and came from nowhere. The time was 1:00 3-5.

The public's money was burned up in the irst race, for platers, at six furlongs, by Paul lifford, Dimple and For Luck. Counterpoise, 12 to 1, made a lightning break, in-stantly showing his heels to the big field, and came down to the wire under Bullman's drive a length before Typhonic, 20 to 1, who was half a length before Foxy Kane, 12 to 1. Dimple, who had poor racing luck, was a

The last race, for maiden two-year-olds, at four and a half furlongs, was merely a gallop for Newton Bennington's colt Right koyal, 1 to 2 favorite, who tow-roped his company to the judges, where he disposed of Eill Daly's Amberjack, 5 to 1, by a length and a half. Fight Begun on Selden Auto Patent.

behalf of the Association of Licensed Auto-mobile Manufacturers against the Ford Motor Company for infringements of the Selden patent, asserted to be a fundamental grant, has begun. This is the big test case grant, has begun. This is the bis test case in which the whole automobile industry of the world, and particularly of the United States, is interested. If the patent is sustained the pool of licensed makers will have absolute sway, not only over manufacturers here, but also all importers. If it is not sustained the licensed association, which is now powerfully organized, will rely upon its assortment of several dozen patents on structural detail te hold it together and maintain its sway. General Manager Day of the A. L. A. M. says that a decision can be expected within a year.

100,000 PERSONS SEE CUP TIE Northern Army Invades London for Final Football Game at Crystal Palace.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.
LONDON, April 23.—The Crystal Palace this afternoon witnessed a scene the exact parallel of which probably could not be found in any other country or city. Before 8 o'clock this morning seventy special trains poured an army of 40,000 people from Lancashire into London. They were chiefly mill operatives who for months have been paying threepence a week into clubs with a view to paying the expenses of the trip. To Lancashire's 40,000 London and other parts of the United Kingdom added some 60,000 or 70,000 more to the crowd at the Crystal Palace, where thousands of extra seats, 1,000 extra attendants and 250 police-men awaited them.

Thousands of these excursionists brought their own provisions and small casks of beer, but the Palace caterers had 1,000 beer, but the Palace caterers and 1,000 waitresses ready to serve provisions sufficient for an army of five figures. Some of the items on the menu will give an idea of its dimensions. There were 120,000 bittles of bread and butter ready, 120,000 bottles of soda, 23,000 pounds of potatoes, 200 rumps of beef, 250 chines of mutton and 40 whole lambs

This great crowd assembled in the south of England to see two North of England football teams playing the final game of the tie for the annual cup, which was won by Manchester City by 1 goal to 0 for the Bolton Wanderers.

Scranton Sporting Men Win on Ringer in a Prizefight.

WILKESBARRE, April 23.—Sporting men of this city have just discovered that they were cleverly outwitted by Scranton men. On April 5 Tommy Quigley, a featherweight of this city, met "Joe Wagner" in the ring, and the Wilkesbarre sports put up a lot of and the Wilkesbarre sports put up a lot of money. They thought "Joe Wagner" was an ambitious youngster from New York and that he would be easy for Quigley.

To their surprise and pain, the good thing put it all over Quigley, and in a few rounds the Wilkesbarre boy was beaten to a standstill. It is said that the ambitious "Joe Wagner" was "Kid" Murphy, a clever New York East Side fighter, and that the Scranton sports knew it.

GOSSIP OF THE RACETRACK.

"WALK-UP" STARTING TO BE CON-TINUED AT JAMAICA.

Possibility of a Return to the Flatfooted Getaway, However—"Get-Rich-Quick" Ryan Backs His Paul Clifford in Vain -Jockey Ogilvie Will Lose His Leg.

The starting problem continued to interest turfmen at Aqueduct yesterday, where there was a marked improvement in the send-offs With the wind-up of the Queens County Jockey Club meeting, C. J. Fitzgerald, according to the programme outlined by the Jockey Club stewards, will be relieved by Mars Cassidy stewards, will be releved by mars cassady during the coming meeting of nine days at Jamica. The "walk-up" system has caused so much adverse comment not only among owners and trainers, but also among racegoers in general that a clamor for the old flatfooted system employed by Starter Fitzgerald with so much success has been grow-ing more intense from day to day. Accordingly, a steward of the Jockey Club was asked yesterday whether there would be an immediate change to the former method of getting the horses away from the post. This official said that at the Jamaica meeting Mr. Cassidy would be permitted to show what he can do with the "walk-up" system and that if there was satisfaction enough to warrant it the system would be carried to Morris Park, where Mr. Fitzgerald would resume charge of the barrier. But it is safe to say that unless Mr. Cassidy's startling under the present conditions at Jamaica is a vast improvement over the starting at Aque-duct the "walk-up" system will be abolished, inasmuch as the flatfooted getaway has been tried and not found wanting.

"We want a certainty," said a strong advocate of the old system yesterday, "and further experimenting only shakes the confidence of the racegoing public. When it comes to the big two-year-old stakes in which there are twenty or more starters, does anybody be-lieve that such big fields can be sent away without some horses getting the worst of it? Under the flatfooted system the horses were educated to stand with their noses close to the tape and when the barrier was released they broke instinctively. In the Futurity of 1902 there were twenty-four starters and all of them broke in a perfect line. That was only a sample of the starts under the old régine. The "walk up," so far, has been a hodgepodge with even money against your horse getting away."

There is a difference of opinion among the jockeys on the two systems. The fines were again handed out yesterday, Robertson, Fuller, Shaw, Crimmins, Cormack, A. Brennan, Martin, Burns and Bullman being docked

$25 each. John J. Ryan, the "get rich quick" man, recently reinstated by the Jockey Club, was at the track yesterday, betting as usual. His colors, "green, white stars and cap," were seen here for the first time when Paul Clifford carried them in the opening race. Ryan put Shaw up and then got busy with the layers, the Lissak gelding's price dropped from 10 to 1 to fives. But this time Ryan's money looked like that of anybody else, and as Paul Clifford ran far back in the ruck the layers chuckled with glee. So far, Ryan has not indulged in any sensational plunges, but the season is young yet. He and Leo the well known bookmaker, have their heads pretty close together.

It was said yesterday that Jockey Ogilvie, the boy whose foot was bitten by All Gold on Friday, will lose his leg. Blood poisoning on Friday, will lose his leg. Brood poisoning is feared, and the physicians believe that the limb should be amputated at the knee.

John W. Gates paid his first visit to the track yesterday, and renewed old acquaintances in the clubhouse, which contained many notables. Mr. Gates, who saw the Boster that he was the contained the contained with the Crescent City ton Stable's Ostrich win the Crescent City Derby at New Orleans, wagered $100 on him to take the Queens County Handicap. did not bet on him at New Orleans," he said, but backed S. S. Brown's Auditor. Ostrich is a good colt and is worth a small flyer."
The Order colt ran third after being absolutely last at the far turn.

Something of a killing was pulled off with April Shower, the winner of the fifth race yesterday. The horse is owned by J. A. Caesar, a Canadian turfman, and is trained by A. J. Goldsborough. He was prepared for this event with much secrecy, yet the tip was abroad early in the day, and when the layers put up 10 to 1 the odds quickly dropped to fours. Every book in the ring felt the joit when the horse won, about $25,000 being paid out by the cashiers. It was said that April Shower was played all over the country in the poolrooms.

Martin Bergen, the well known jockey who won undying fame by riding Salvator, flis Highness and other great horses, was at the track yesterday. He can make 105 at the track yesterday. He can make 105 counds and says he may ride again. Bergen has been associated with Eugene Leigh in France and declares that whenever Leigh does not win two races in a single day the French racegoers believe that he is going back in skill.

"Diamond Jim" Brady, form r part owner of Gold Heels and Major Daingerfield, was another visitor.
"Father Bill" Daly has not been cutting

Collector Jessup win this race, but it was said that the son of Bel Demonio was liberally played at tens.

Barring the success of his two-year-old Right Royal, for whom he paid $16,000 as a yearling. Newton Bennington did not enjoy his usual good luck. His colors were carried by For Luck, Astarita and Waterside, and all were backed to win in vain,

If William Lakeland's Estella J., a filly by Goldcrest-Ethel Green, had won the last race, the ring would have received quite a scorching, as she was backed down from 100 to 1 to 40 to 1, the Brighton contingent being aboard to a man.

Jack Ratlin was a hot tip in the Queens County Handicap, the Westerners eating up 4 to 1 as if it was real jam. The Spendthrift horse got the best of the break, but he could not stand for Rosetint's dazzling flight of Previous winners of the Woodhaven Stakes were Vertigo, Frelinghuysen, Scurry, Elsie L., Hedge and Agnes Brennan. Those of the Queens County Handicap, which was first run in 1902, were Margraviate and Yellow O'Neill excelled in the saddle yesterday, with a winner and two seconds.

M'VEY KNOCKED OUT. Jack Johnson Puts Heavyweight Away

After a Listless Mill. Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight of California, showed his calibre as a fighter by knocking out Sam McVey, another negro, in the last round of what was to have been a twenty round fight, at Mechanics' Pavilion, San Francisco, on Friday night. The knockout came in the final round, when there was only twenty seconds left to go. Johnson outpointed McVey from the start and the go was so one sided that many spectators left the building before the fight was half over. Johnson was in his usual fine shape, but did not fight with his charac-teristic vim. He outclassed McVey on all sides but was too merciful. He had many opportunities to end the fight quicker than he did, but when it came to the final test he would invariably hold back, much to the chagrin of the spectators.

The first three rounds were devoid of any interesting fighting. Johnson was simply "feeling" McVey out. He had not the slightest trouble in reaching his rival, driving home interesting fighting. Johnson was simply "feeling" MoVey out. He had not the slightest trouble in reaching his rival, driving home smarting jabs with precision. In the fourth, McVey did a little work, but Johnson was so clever and shifty that McVey was unable to reach him. He did a lot of mealicient swinging, and his vain attempts to land made the crowd laugh.

The next four rounds were monotonous. McVey tried hard to do some landing, but Johnson's left hand was in the way and he had all he could do to guard bimself. In the ninth, Johnson cut loose in real earnest and rained blow after blow on McVey's face and jaw. He had the latter wabbling, but could not bring him to the floor. McVey seemed to like the punching and struck out for all he was worth. In the tenth McVey began to show signs of the punishment he was receiving and clinched. Two punches in the stomachhad him in distress and a heavy uppercut affer a mix-up brought him to his knees. Johnson also jarred him with body blows, and McVey went to his corner weak and tottering.

In the eleventh McVey clinched whenever Johnson forced him and he did this so often that the spectators hissed him. This made him put a little spurt in his work near the end of the round. Johnson merely played with him and almost put him away with a fierce left drive in the wind. The twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth rounds were so tame that the crowd yelled: "Go on and fight." Johnson was evidently doing his best, but somehow was unable to land an effective punch. Many thought that he was "stalling" and hissed him.

Things livened up in the fifteenth. In the sixteenth Johnson rushed McVey and smashed his rival for all he was worth. Johnson landed a powerful left on the body and as McVey turned he struck him with both right and left on the jaw. Johnson wickedly. The latter met MoVey with straight left punches in the wind. The gallery yelled approval, but Sam could not exert himself further.

Johnson had good chances of putting McVey clean out, but he refrained. For this the crowd his LAWN TENNIS.

Grant and Le Roy Win in Exhibition Doubles at New York L. T. Club Opening. On the club courts at St. Nicholas avenue and 123d street the New York Lawn Tennis Club held its formal opening yesterday after-noon. In spite of the chilly weather a good sized crowd was in attendance. Some exhibition matches were on the cards, the feature being the sharp battle between Wylle Grant and Robert Le Roy of the home club and Harry F. Allen, Belmont Cricket Club, and Theodore R. Pell.

Although this contest went to the New York club pair, it required five sets to decide. Both teams were in fair form for so early in the season, with Grant suffering somewhat from a sprain. Fast tennis for the open-of Gold Heels and Major Daingerfield, was another visitor.

Tather Bill" Daly has not been cutting much ice lately, but he ran second twice yesterday with Colonsay and Amberjack. His old gelding, Daly, was tipped in the fifth race, and many long shot players accepted 20 to 1, but Daly was last in a field of fourteen and "Father Bill's" smile came off.

It was generally understood that E. R. Thomas wasgered enough on his two-year-old Niblick in the Woodhaven stakes to win him out. Niblick and St. Beliane were both purchased by Mr. Thomas from Sydney Paget the other day, and each has won his first race in the Thomas colors.

Those who believe in watching the warming up gallops were sure that Austin Allen had a chance in the Woodhaven and rushed into the ring to get some of the 40 to 1 that was on tap. The coli was ourrun from the start, but ran a game race, even though he did not get into the money.

"Virginia" Bradley made preparations to ship his stable last night to Chicago. He was visibly disappointed over the showing of his crack three-year-old Peter Paul in the second race. The Aloha gelding was played down to 7 to 2, second choice, but he was bumped at the start and never had a chance to be prominent afterward.

L. V. Bell was not on hand to see his colt
